Annapolls, Jan. 28—Delegate Frances Holub (D., Second Baltimore) introduced a bill today that would allow political and civic organizations to conduct bingo games in Baltimore city.

Mrs. Holub, president of the Loyal Ladies Auxiliary of the Young Men's Bohemian Democratic Club for ten years, said her organization did charity work and should be allowed to raise funds in the same way as other charitable organizations.

Currently, the law prohibits bingo games to be held in the city by any other than "fraternal, religious, patriotic, educational and charitable corporations."

Mrs. Holub, who also is a vice-chairman of the United Democratic Women's Clubs of Maryland, said that if legislators do not support the measure, they will fail to show their appreciation for the work that women's political organizations do in their behalf.

Asked whether she believed the bill would have enough backing to pass, she said, "If I am able to get it through, I'll be a hero among all the women's political groups."

Mrs. Holub's bill also would increase the charge for a permit for a bingo event from the current 50 cents to $2.
